FRENCH FORCE RETREAT

Debeny's Army Shatters German Defenses in Center—Whole Teuton Line in Danger of Being Turned on Serre-Oise Front.

Paris, Oct. 29.—Still further progress has been made by the French northwest of Guise and they have moved forward east of the Peron river beyond Pargny wood, the war office announces. French aviators have been exceedingly active.

London, Oct. 29.—In France the German battleline is slowly integrating under the violence of the Allied offensive; in Northern Italy the Austro-Hungarians are being forced back by the British, French and Italians with heavy losses.

More than 9,000 Austrians were taken prisoner in the operations near the shores of the Adriatic, according to the War office announcement. Fifty-one guns were also captured.

British and Italian forces in their offensive advanced for a distance of four miles beyond the Piave river.

With the Americans Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 29.—Longuyon is under fire of American long range guns. The long range fire also is being directed against the vital Voie de Rocade, on the railway line paralleling the front.

Bombardment of Longuyon with big shells is achieving the purpose of the American advance northwest of Verdun, in which 70,000 Germans have been killed, wounded or captured in the last month. That purpose is to put out of use the railway line running through Longuyon, which is the only communication between all the German armies west of the Meuse river and Metz and Luxembourg.

With that railway unserviceable, the enemy will have no line of retreat or means of obtaining ammunition and other supplies from Germany except through Belgium by way of Liege.

Turning German Line.

With the French Armies in France, Oct. 29.—General Debeny's army has won a signal victory. The German forces holding the Serre-Oise front are in retreat and the whole German line between Chateau Porcien and the Argonne is in danger of being turned. Persistent attacks by General Debeny's indefatigable infantry have broken the river line, which is the last water line commanded by the enemy between the present front and the Meuse.

It is reported that the Hunding line is broken near Guise. If this is a fact, the whole German line south and north of that city is in danger. Collapse of the enemy's front there would weaken the lines along the Aisne near Rethel, where the French have been virtually held up for some time. If the line of the Aisne gives way, the Germans further east around the Argonne forest and nearer the Meuse must readjust their lines, it would seem.

British Advance in Italy.

Fighting continues in the Italian theater with the British extending their lines east of the Piave in the region of Montello, where they have advanced more than two miles from the river. In these operations the British have captured more than 6,600 prisoners. Vienna reports the recapture of Monte Asolone, between the Brenta and the Piave, and the repulse of Italian efforts elsewhere on the mountain front.

Eighteen New Ships in Week.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Eighteen new ships of 98,900 total deadweight tons were added to the American fleet during the week ending Oct. 25.

Rioting in Germany.

London, Oct. 29.—(Via Montreal.)—It is persistently reported that riots are of daily occurrence in various parts of Germany, resulting in conflicts with the police and loss of life. The lack of raw materials, especially of explosives, is seriously hampering munitions works. It is stated that Krupp have been compelled to dismiss many workers. A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Zurich, Switzerland, says the revolutionary movement is spreading.

General Ludendorff, first quartermaster general of the German army, has resigned, says a telegram from Berlin. In the resignation of General Ludendorff, Germany loses what often has been described as her "military brain."

SHORES STREWN WITH DEAD

Searchers Find No Survivors of Princess Sophia Wreck.

Juneau, Alaska, Oct. 29.—Shores near the wreck of the steamship Princess Sophia are strewn with bodies, while no survivors have been located, according to wireless messages received here from boats searching the waters of the Lynn canal, where the vessel went down with more than 300 persons aboard.

Atrocities in Macedonia.

Saloniki, Oct. 29.—The Bulgarians, during their occupation of Eastern Macedonia, attempted to force the Greeks to become Bulgarians, and treated the Greeks cruelly, declares Dr. Pazis, vice president of the Greek chamber of deputies. "There were wholesale deportations and the people were abandoned to famine, outrage and murder," says Dr. Pazis. The Bulgarians sent large numbers of Greek children into Bulgaria without the parents of the children knowing the purposes of the Bulgarians.

HUNGARY HAS REVOLTED---FORMED INDEPENDENT ANTI-DYNASTIC STATE

CALIBER KEPT SECRET

Americans Using Formidable Guns in Verdun Region.

Weapons Are Regarded as Superior to Big German Piece That Shelled Paris.

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 29.—The caliber of the gun used by the Americans in the long range bombardment of Longuyon, 23 miles northeast of Verdun, cannot be stated yet, but it is hinted that the weapon can shoot many miles.

The gun is said to be infinitely more formidable than the big gun with which the Germans bombarded Paris, though its range probably is not as great.

The big guns were ready for use some time ago, but could not be used because bad weather prevented the necessary support by aviator.

The use of these long range guns has been awaited eagerly ever since the Americans advanced to a point from which the guns could reach the vital railroad. For days the guns have been on the American sector maneuvering for position from which they might successfully bombard the Sedan-Carignan-Montmedy-Longuyon line.

The cutting of this line, toward which the Americans have been pressing constantly, would mean the virtual collapse of the entire German front to the Dutch border. Even to interrupt the railroad intermittently would be a huge gain, since most of the German relief division sent against the Americans have been brought in over that line.

Military Coup D'Etat Frustrated in Germany

London, Oct. 29.—Colorful reports are pouring into London from the Hague quoting Berlin newspapers of the exposure of a military coup d'etat planned by General Ludendorff and Field Marshal Hindenburg to block any concessions to President Wilson. The Vorwaerts declares the constitutional changes were rushed to frustrate the coup d'etat. The exposure of the alleged plot is believed to have forced the resignation of Ludendorff and to have started a movement to oust Von Hindenburg. The members of the Reichstag and the socialist press daily demand the abdication of the kaiser.

(By United Press)

Copenhagen, Oct. 29.—Hungary has definitely revolted and formed an independent anti-dynastic state under the leadership of Count Karolyi in co-operation with the Czechs and Jugo-Slavs says a Vienna dispatch to the Politiken. Count Karolyi who was elected to the head of the National council was given an ovation in Budapest. He said that Emperor Karl had refused his program for a greater degree of separation between Austria and Hungary.

Revolution Started in Montenegro

(By United Press)

Zurich, Oct. 29.—A revolution has broken out in Montenegro says a dispatch from Laibach. The revolutionists, including Albanian soldiers, have seized Cetinje, Scutaria and Rieka. Austro-Hungarians are evacuating the country. Cetinje is the capital of Montenegro.

Unconditional Surrender Only Terms

BY ROBERT J. BENDER.

Washington, Oct. 29.—World events are rapidly shaping to make unconditional surrender the only terms for the Central Powers. As one after another of the Teuton vassals crumble before the strength of the nations allied against them, the stronger grows the feeling here that only unconditional surrender should be the mandate of the Versailles conference meeting today to formulate an armistice program.

VIGILANCE IS URGED

Von Hindenburg Appeals to His Troops to Hold Fast.

Field Marshal Says Fatherland Relies on Them for Safety From Invasion.

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 29.—According to a captured document now in the hands of the Americans, "Hold fast, an armistice has not yet been concluded," is the word sent to German troops by Field Marshal von Hindenburg, chief of the general staff. The German commander's appeal reads:

"German Soldiers—Be vigilant! The word 'armistice' is current in the trenches and camps but we have not yet reached that point. To some, the word represents a certainty, to others it is even a synonym of the peace so long desired.

"They believe that events no longer depend upon them. Their vigilance is relaxed; their courage and their endurance as well as their spirit of defiance toward the enemy are diminished. We have not yet reached our aim. The armistice has not yet been concluded—the war is still on—the same war as ever.

"Now more than ever you must be vigilant and hold fast. You are upon the enemy's soil and on the soil of Alsace-Lorraine, the bulwark of our country. In this grave hour, the fatherland relies on you for its prosperity and for its safety."

British and Italians Break Austrian Line

(By United Press)

Rome, Oct. 29.—The Italians and British continue their offensive in the Piave region and have broken through the Austrian lines on a wide front the Italian war office announces. The battle is proceeding on a front of about fifty miles from the Alsace region to a point on the Piave between Treviso and Oderzo. The Italians and British are across the Piave on the whole thirty mile front between Valdoradene and Roncadella. The allies have driven a great wedge into the enemy's lines northeast of Treviso and are advancing more than five miles east of the Piave on a fifteen mile front.

Italians Rout Austrians on Piave

BY HENRY WOOD,

(Staff Correspondent, United Press)

With the Italians Afield, Oct. 29.—The Italians are now advancing on a front of sixty kilometers extending from the east of Mount Spionocia to Ricandell. The Austrian lines have been completely pierced east of the Piave. A number of additional bridges have been thrown across the Piave, and light infantry and other units are pouring across these bridges in ever increasing numbers.

Austrians Report Heavy Fighting

(By United Press)

Vienna, via London, Oct. 29.—"East of Brenta a great battle is raging on a front of more than thirty-seven miles," the Austrian war office announced. "In the mountains between the Brenta and Piave the enemy assaults failed."

Turkey Has Proposed a Separate Peace

(By United Press)

Copenhagen, Oct. 29.—Constantinople has proposed a separate peace for Turkey according to information here. It was stated the proposal was made independently by the Porte.

KAISER WILL NOT ABDICATE

Willing to Be "Hereditary President" of Republican Kingdom.

London, Oct. 29.—Emperor William has no intention of abdicating, but is willing if it is for the good of the people, to ordain that his rights shall be revised, according to a statement attributed to German court circles. The emperor is said to have remarked: "I will not abandon my sorely tried people, but if necessary I am ready to become something like hereditary president of a German republic, like the kings of England and Belgium."

GENERAL VON SANDERS FLEES

Takes Bulk of His Turkish Force From Aleppo.

London, Oct. 29.—When British cars and cavalry came in sight of Aleppo, the Syrian city captured by General Allenby on Saturday, Field Marshal Liman von Sanders, German commander of the Turkish forces, withdrew 10,000 of his 12,000 troops and retired toward Katma.

A Turkish rearguard was left at Aleppo, but it put up slight resistance. Before retiring the Turkish rearguard burned the railroad station and most of the railroad stock.

THREE BRITISH TRAWLERS SUNK

Small Boats Have Lively Naval Battle With Four German Submarines.

WERE ON PATROL DUTY

Craft Sailing Near Fishing Banks in North Sea Opens Fire on One For Diver and Five Others Soon Appear.

London, Oct. 29.—Although outranged by the enemy guns, three British trawlers fought four German submarines until put out of action by the divers.

According to an account of the engagement published in the Times the armed trawlers Onward, Era and Nellie Nutten were patrolling near the North sea fishing grounds when a submarine came into sight.

The trawlers opened fire on the submarine and the submarine replied. Soon three more submarines appeared out of the haze and all joined in the attack on the trawlers, who kept up the unequal fight.

The Captain of the Nellie Nutten, finding his ship helpless steered toward a Dutch lugger and abandoned his own vessel, which soon went down. The captain saw the Era in flames and the Onward out of control, and when he looked soon afterward they were gone.

U-Boats Not Flying White Flag.

London, Oct. 29.—The white flags reported by crews of vessels arriving at Stavanger as having been at the mast heads of several German submarines passing Karmo Island last Saturday doubtless were mistaken for the German battle flag, which is white with a black eagle in the center. At the British admiralty it was thought the U-boats sighted were probably returning to their bases in view of the apparent German policy of submarine inactivity.

Dr. Garfield said the nation's fuel supplies are adequate and well distributed; that coal stocks on hand are greater than ever before.

Tradition and Good Books.

Good books, like well-built houses, must have tradition behind them. The Homers and Shakespeares and Goethes spring from rich soil left by dead centuries; they are like native trees that grow so well nowhere else, says Henry Seidel Canby in the Yale Review. The little writers—backs who sentimentalize to the latest order, and display their plot novelties like bargains on an advertising page—are just as traditional. The only difference is that their tradition goes back to books instead of life. Middle-sized authors—the very good and the probably enduring—are successful largely because they have gripped a tradition and followed it through to contemporary life. This is what Thackeray did in "Vanity Fair," Howells in "The Rise of Silas Lapham," and Mrs. Wharton in "The House of Mirth." But back-to-nature books—both the sound ones and those shameless exposures of the private emotions of groundhogs and turtles that call themselves nature books—are the most traditional of all, for they plunge directly into what might be called the adventures of the American sub-conscious.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

It happened at Pillager where somebody thoughtlessly gave the safe door a swing and it locked and the Pillager Mercantile Co. had forgotten the combination and valuable papers relating to several deals were locked up and they could not get at them.

The village blacksmith and helper were called in and they labored a day and a half trying to bore through the steel door and when they were about tuckered out, the mercantile company called up Rosko Bros. of Brainerd.

Henry Rosko went down with his welding machinery outfit, carrying the 300 pound equipment in his car. He turned on the gas and rapidly cut out a piece near the door, lopped off a hinge or two and in two minutes had the door off.

The safe was not thought of much value any way and the Pillager people were eternally grateful in getting the door open. It saved them several hundred dollars getting a "safe buster" from a safe company, and enabled them to put through the deals figured on.

Pete Cardle's story about ducks was read at the head of the lakes and several Duluth hunters came to town today and went north on the M. & I. to get their share.

From England Private Clarence R. Fredstrom, 310th Aero Squadron, American Expeditionary Force, writes his mother, Mrs. Frank G. Fredstrom, Route 3, Brainerd:

"It looks as though we have their goat, and only a matter of time to end this war. The papers here give little credit to the Yanks, but we know they are doing their share in the fighting.

"We have a swimming hole not far from here and that is my favorite spot. We have a few little villages near by with churches and places of amusement.

"The favorite sport among the English soldiers and officers is football and cricket. Sept. 5th is some big day for this country. I don't know just what for, but we are going to have a program of sports, dance and music here in camp.

"Am still waiting for mail, not a word from anyone for almost a month. Send a couple of Brainerd papers if you can so I can see if the old burg is still on the map. Hope you are all well and getting along all right. Let me hear from the kids, including Gene."

America the Old World.

It has been observed that, although this continent is the new world in relation to its discovery, it is an old world, much older than Europe, in relation to the types of its animals and plants. For example, the big trees of California are of older stock than any trees now growing in Europe. The question has been raised whether some of the races of Siberia and eastern Asia have not sprung from American aborigines, rather than that our Indians have come from that quarter.

FINANCING WAR IS TREMENDOUS TASK

HOWEVER, NO GOVERNMENT EVER WAS DEFEATED BY A LACK OF FUNDS.

SURE WAYS TO OBTAIN MONEY

House Refrained From Discussing Germany's Peace Proposal, Though Senate Talked Freely—Cummins Tells What Must Happen to the Huns.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—Financing the war is a tremendous task. It has been asserted in regard to wars that there is no possibility of a war failing because of a lack of financial resources. Countries lose wars because they can no longer obtain men or food. The Confederacy lost because it was literally starved out, shut in and unable to procure men, munitions and food. Of course the finances of the Confederacy were in a deplorable state, but it was not because of a lack of money that the Confederacy failed.

And so it is with all wars. Germany is not defeated because she lacks money, nor Austria, either, for that matter, because every government has the power to get money. No doubt the finances of the central powers are in a bad condition and when the collapse comes there will doubtless be many financial losses. But it is not for want of money that the collapse must come. It is because they will be beaten, overpowered, and forced to sue for peace.

The cost of the war upon the United States is something tremendous. It costs us 14 times as much to transport and maintain a soldier in France as it does the German government. But these great expenditures will be financed. If voluntary loans should fall there would be forced loans. Taxation knows no limit save the value of the property and what the government could not get in one way it could in another. Like other countries, it could finally resort to unlimited issues of paper currency. But it is hoped by the sale of bonds and just and equitable tax measures this government may be enabled to carry on the war without resort to more serious measures.

While the senate indulged itself freely in discussion of the German peace offer and the president's reply, the house of representatives was strangely silent on the subject. It so happened during the time that the situation was most acute and it was therefore in the power of any one man by an objection or making the point of no quorum to prevent any discussion and force the house to adjourn immediately. And that was just what happened when any member showed a disposition to discuss the peace proposals. An objection was made and the house adjourned. It is characteristic of the two houses of congress that the senate is much more free in the way of discussion than the house. An attempt was made in the senate at one time to prevent the discussion of the peace proposals, but it was found that more than a majority of the members of the senate were within call and after they had responded to their names the discussion proceeded with great eagerness.

The sentiments of a great many people were put into words by Senator Cummins of Iowa in a speech he made to the senate while the recent German peace notes were under fire in that body. "Germany is a menace to mankind," he said, "because she has a cruel, wicked, malicious intent toward the remainder of the world. We cannot change her intent, for it is the result of years and years of training and teaching in a false and selfish philosophy; but we can disarm her and leave her helpless and harmless. Her army must be disbanded, her navy distributed among the allies, her fortifications dismantled, and her munitions factories destroyed. These conditions mean the degradation, possibly the disintegration of a once mighty nation; but if the world is to be secure this must be imposed."

From time to time a story filters back to this country which shows that in spite of all the sorrow and misery in Europe humor has not been entirely blotted out. For instance, someone asked a Red Cross worker in Italy how he managed to take care of refugees and send them away from the battle front in spite of transportation difficulties. "The trains are always jammed," replied the Red Cross official. "Every one on board cries to us there is not another inch of room. We pay no attention to them. Our fattest soldier enters a car and opens a passage for the family. When all the members and their endless belongings are squeezed in we go back and pick up another family." That fat soldier would come in handy on the street cars here in Washington in the rush hours.

While Chairman Kitchin was discussing his big revenue bill Uncle Joe Cannon asked him if he was not "interested in one or more small banks in North Carolina."

"As a borrower," yes," replied Kitchin, to the amusement of the house. Kitchin is not considered one of the wealthy men in congress.

VERDALE SUN

One of the cheery, pleasant exchanges to the Dispatch has been the Verdale Sun and it is with a feeling of sadness that it is noted that Editor H. H. Allen will discontinue issuing the paper the end of October. The list will be taken over by the Wadena Pioneer Journal. The H. C. of L. and the limited amount of business secured in its territory are given as reasons for discontinuance.

Then, for the first time in eight years, the editor had the influenza and was flat on his back for a week and the Wadena Pioneer Journal force hustled over and helped him get out the Sun.

During the eight years that Allen has edited the Sun, that week was the first time that sickness prevented him from being around when the paper was printed.

NO NEW GERMANY

One reads of Ludendorff being dismissed, of Hindenburg soon to follow suit, but there can be no new Germany until the Kaiser is discarded. As long as the Hohenzollerns cling to the throne, democracy has no show in that country.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Dispatch:—I was shocked when in this morning's paper, I read of the death of Senator Robert C. Dunn of Princeton. In the death of Senator Dunn the state has lost its ablest and most influential good roads legislator. In all road legislation the senator was above everything else, the friend of the farmer. The senator was in ceaseless touch with our long drawn out Gull Lake road controversy and I am violating no confidence when I say he was wholly in sympathy with the farmers in this controversy. C. A. KROGH.

Animals Die on Substitutes.
 Animals in the zoo in Berlin have died in large numbers recently, principally because the substitutes which they have been given instead of their accustomed food could not be digested sufficiently to sustain life. Among the species in which the mortality has been greatest are the giraffes, mandrills and chimpanzees. The health of the surviving animals is not good.

According to Hamlyn's Menagerie magazine, published in London, the Berlin Zoological society declared that while dates and bananas and other tropical fruits were unobtainable, the apes were fed on a kind of biscuit made of musty flour.

The carnivora manage to live on scraps from the slaughter houses, but the animals requiring grain and seeds are not thriving well on the wild roots given them as substitutes.

State Department Is Given Reply Through the Swiss Legation.

AUSTRIA SEEKS PEACE

Dual Monarchy Is Reported to Have Sent Note Accepting American Terms and Asking Cessation of Hostilities.

Washington, Oct. 29.—The Swiss legation has delivered to the State department the latest note from Germany. Cable dispatches from Europe say Austria-Hungary has sent another note to President Wilson asking that immediate negotiations for peace and an armistice be entered into without awaiting the results of the exchanges with Germany.

Adheres to Same Point of View.
 The Vienna government asserted that it adhered to the same point of view expressed by the President in his last communication upon the rights of the Austro-Hungarian peoples, especially those of the Czechs, Slovaks and Jugo-Slavs and requested that he begin overtures with the Allied governments with a view to ending immediately hostilities on all Austro-Hungarian fronts.

The official text of the German note did not differ materially from the unofficial version as received by cable. No official comment was forthcoming, but it is known that no response will be made at present to the communication, which is believed to have been dispatched with the primary purpose of satisfying the German public that their government is not omitting any opportunity to forward the negotiations for an armistice and peace.

Warns Against Qualified Peace.
 Warning against any peace with Austria that would not give the Allies free passage through the country to attack the Germans from the south was sounded here by Captain Vassile Stoica, now in Washington, who represented the Roumanians of Austro-Hungary in the conference of oppressed nationalities last week at Philadelphia, and who was wounded fighting against the Austrians and Germans.

—Captain Stoica said that if immune from attack from the south, the Germans, by withdrawing to the natural defenses of the Rhine in the west, might be able to carry on the war several years, because of this shorter front the Allied superiority of forces could not be used to full advantage.

HINDENBURG LOSING CASTE

German Field Marshal May Be Forced to Resign.

Amsterdam, Oct. 29.—The question heard on all sides is whether Field Marshal von Hindenburg will follow in the footsteps of Ludendorff.

George Bernhardt, writing in the Berlin Vossische Zeitung, while acclaiming Ludendorff as one of the saviors of the Fatherland "from enemy devastation," says the fact that he conceived himself omniscient and omnipotent brought his doom.

TAKES LUDENDORFF'S PLACE

Gen. Lossberg New Quartermaster General of German Army.

Washington, Oct. 29.—General Lossberg has been appointed successor to General Ludendorff, the State department was informed.

General Ludendorff's retirement as first quartermaster general of the German army is reported to have resulted from the action of the civil authorities in taking control of the military.

WANT BAN ON GERMAN TOYS

American Manufacturers Ask Congress to Enact Law.

New York, Oct. 29.—Immediate passage by Congress of a law prohibiting the landing at American ports of German-made toys or other German-made merchandise "until the Central empires have submitted to an Allied peace," was urged in a resolution adopted at a convention here of the Toy Makers' Association of America.

BRITISH LOSSES FOR WEEK

Casualties Total 32,249, 5,447 Men Being Killed.

London, Oct. 29.—British casualties reported for the week ended Oct. 28 numbered 32,249, compared with 37,150 for the previous week. They are divided as follows:

Killed or Died of Wounds—Officers, 436; men, 5,307.
 Wounded or Missing—Officers, 1,141; men, 25,365.

Alaska Railway Extended.

Seward, Alaska, Oct. 29.—Six hours and 50 minutes was the actual running time of the special train which officially opened the United States government railroad between Seward and Anchorage this week. A regular train service between the two points could be maintained from now on, except for the fact that slides on the Anchorage division are expected to cause trouble for some time yet. The distance between Seward and Anchorage is about 110 miles.

EXEMPTIONS ASKED ARE TOO NUMEROUS

MANY APPLICATIONS ARE MADE IN BEHALF OF MEN "NEEDED" IN CLERICAL POSITIONS.

THEY TRULY ARE SLACKERS

Total Appropriations for Year Made by This Congress Will Approximate $36,000,000,000—Sherley's Work on the Deficiency Bill.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—Man power is the most important thing in the prosecution of the war. It ought to be to the everlasting shame of any set of people or any community to interfere in any way with furnishing the most essential element to win the war. There should not be any demand by officials or individuals for exemptions of men within the draft age merely because they are useful in clerical capacities or as assistants in business offices. Yet there is a great deal of that going on. Hundreds of thousands of applications for exemption have been made on the ground that the men were needed by the government in departments in Washington and in various other lines of activity, official and commercial. There is not much difference between one kind of a slacker and another. There are millions of men in France or on their way to France who as well deserve exemption from service as the hundreds of thousands who are making such strong efforts to obtain it. Man power is needed, and what is more, it will be obtained in spite of a disposition in some quarters to avoid serving the government.

The total appropriations for the year as made by this congress will be in the neighborhood of $36,000,000,000. The total cost of conducting the United States government from January 1, 1791, to January 1, 1914, which included the Civil war expenditures, was $28,000,000,000. It will thus appear that in the matter of spending money we are "going some" in order to crush the Hun. But the general verdict of the American people will be that it is worth the price.

Congressman Sherley of Kentucky, chairman of the committee on appropriations, knows what it is to do hard congressional work. "I have," he told the house, "in order to bring this big deficiency bill forward, worked every night for the past two weeks until midnight, Sunday included. I am prepared to go forward with this bill if the house is also ready."

Although the remarks of the distinguished chairman were received with a great deal of applause it is a fact that Congressman Blanton of Texas insisted that he should be accorded 30 minutes in which to defend the postmaster general from charges that had been made against him in the house several weeks before, and, over the protest of Chairman Sherley, Blanton took his 40 minutes.

Congressman Hefflin of Alabama was again in the limelight when the urgent deficiency bill was before the house. He denounced the "boss-ridden Republican party" and asserted that the country must sustain the president by electing a Democratic congress this fall. This has happened pretty often and it does not attract so much attention as formerly, but this time Hefflin made some disparaging reference to "Cannonism." When the Alabama had finished Uncle Joe Cannon arose and spoke as follows: "I think the president of the United States can survive, notwithstanding that his self-constituted chief defender, in session and out of session, rushes in and performs and appeals to the God of our fathers."

That brought a laugh, for Hefflin always manages to exclaim "God of our fathers!" at least once in every speech.

On the wall of offices occupied by Congressman Keating of Colorado there is a picture of Marshal Joffre. A visitor noticed it and Keating was reminded of a story. A dozen years ago the present Colorado congressman was a newspaper editor and president of the Denver Press club. Members of the club wanted to give him something as a memento of his persistence and they decided upon an immense portrait of Keating's chief, the owner of the paper. This portrait was painted by a then unknown artist named Lotava. Well, the presentation was made, the portrait placed in the Keating home, and the years went by; and one morning an artist named Lotava sold a portrait he had painted of Marshal Joffre for $20,000. It was the same man, now grown famous, and Keating woke up to find himself owner of a valuable painting.

The speech of Chairman Keating of the ways and means committee on the revenue bill was not of much advantage to members of the house who did not listen to him. It took him two days to tell about the $8,000,000,000 measure, but his speech was not printed until more than six weeks after it was delivered. It occupied over 40 pages in the Congressional Record and it differed from some speeches in the fact that it did not contain a lot of reprinted matter, but was all talk. This is one of the longest speeches ever delivered. It contains figures which make one really dizzy to read.

A young French lieutenant, on special instruction duty in this country, went to visit one of the universities and was taking some pictures when a colored soldier from the camp nearby passed directly in front of him. He looked up and to his companion smilingly remarked: "I will wait till the clouds roll by."

TWO GENERALS PROMOTED

Liggett and Bullard Command Armies in France.

Washington, Oct. 29.—The Senate confirmed the nominations of Major Generals Hunter Liggett and Robert L. Bullard to be temporary lieutenant generals. They command the first and second American armies in France.

BRING DOWN 13 FOE PLANES

Americans Lose Five Machines in Aerial Encounters.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Destruction of 13 enemy airplanes by pursuit squadrons of the American first army in the course of many combats is reported in a supplementary statement by General Pershing. Five American planes were lost.

General Read Thanks Haig.

London, Oct. 29.—In reply to Field Marshal Haig's high commendation of the American 27th and 30th divisions for their gallant services in the operations of the Fourth British army, Maj. Gen. George W. Read has sent the following message to Field Marshal Haig: "Every member of the American second corps will always remember with great pride your generous commendation. We are under the greatest obligations to all the British units attached to us for their co-operation, especially of the Royal artillery."

HEALTH TALK

Spanish Influenza or Grip.

BY DR. LEE H. SMITH.

An old enemy is with us again, and whether we fight a German or a germ, we must put up a good fight and not be afraid. The influenza runs a very brief course when the patient is careful, and if we keep the system in good condition and throw off the poisons which tend to accumulate within our bodies, we can escape the disease. Remember these three C's—a clean mouth, a clean skin, and clean bowels. To carry off poisons from the system and keep the bowels loose, daily doses of a pleasant laxative should be taken. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloë, root of jalap, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Hot lemonade should be used freely if attacked by a cold, and the patient should be put to bed after a hot mustard foot-bath. To prevent the attack of bronchitis or pneumonia and to control the pain, Anuric tablets should be obtained at the drug store, and one given every two hours, with lemonade. The Anuric tablets were first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and as they flush the bladder and cleanse the kidneys, they carry away much of the poisons and the uric acid.

It is important that broths, milk, buttermilk, ice-cream and simple diet be given regularly to strengthen the system and increase the vital resistance. The fever is diminished by the use of the Anuric tablets, but in addition, the forehead, arms and hands may be bathed with water (tepid) in which a tablespoonful of salaratus has been dissolved in a quart. After an attack of grip or pneumonia to build up and strengthen the system, obtain at the drug store a good iron tonic, called "Irontic" Tablets, or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.—Adv.

PRESERVE THINGS OF BEAUTY

Citizen Loyal to His Home Town Will Constitute Himself Guardian of Other People's Property.

People are often wantonly destructive with what costs them nothing. It's a vicious habit that tears out a plant by the roots when all that's desired is the flower. That's had enough in the woods where God's bounty produces in riotous profusion. But even there rare specimens are found and the species may be easily destroyed. The same barbarity practiced near a man's home is contemptible. For a passing whim you destroy for yourself and him the thing that gives you pleasure. You are in a meaner class than the fellow who killed the goose that laid the golden egg. He was a fool for destroying what was his own. You are all he was and more besides, for you take in addition what does not belong to you.

The loyal citizen becomes a guardian of other people's property. The more he can encourage his neighbor the more attractive will his property become and the more beautiful the environment in which he will live. And you will help enjoy it. Without cost to you there will be created a community beauty that will uplift humanity. His lawn and flowers should become dear to you and you should help him defend them. This is no whim of an enthusiast. It's law that's old as the decalogue. If you aren't sure about it take the old book off by yourself and look it up. You may show your ignorance if you do it in company. And if such a thing was a recognized law in those distant barbarous days it surely is more so now. He who deliberately despoils for a passing gratification is not a citizen worthy of the present century.—Pennsylvania Grit.

Do You Pay Your Bills?

Honest Folks Pay

HONEST INDIVIDUALS PAY THEIR BILLS.

Just obligations are settled promptly by JUST PEOPLE, and only JUST PEOPLE ARE HONEST PEOPLE.

The merchant you buy from believes you are honest, until you prove yourself otherwise. He credits you accordingly. And while you PAY YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY you are HONEST. When you begin to lag, his FAITH in YOUR HONESTY lags—and when you BEAT HIM he puts you in the category of CROOKS.

YOU ARE A CROOK when you fail to make good with your promises to pay—just as you are HONEST WHEN YOU PAY.

An individual can't neglect his obligations, break his promises to others, become a DEAD BEAT and still lay claim to HONESTY. That's impossible.

Dead Beats Steal

Taking merchandise out of a man's house and then BEATING him out of the price is stealing.

Merchandise represents money. Many a man believes he wouldn't steal, yet will obtain merchandise on a promise to pay, and DON'T PAY. That man shouldn't be trusted with money, because HE WOULD STEAL.

There is that something lacking in his make-up, and that something, that unscrupulous trait that would MAKE HIM PICK A POCKET, SNATCH A PURSE OR DO SECOND-STORY WORK.

And the merchant you fail to pay realizes that and as a consequence further refuses credit to DEAD BEATS.

Dead Beats CANNOT BE TRUSTED.

See Your Merchant

The merchants of this city are lenient almost to a fault. They have been imposed upon time and time again—yet with unflinching FAITH in the majority of mankind they continue extending credit.

The MAJORITY IS HONEST. DEAD BEATS, DEBT DODGERS and CROOKS are in the minority.

The merchants of this city also realize that misfortune can cross an individual's path. They fully realize that some unforeseen things can arise over which the individual has no control and as a consequence make PROMPT PAYING OF OBLIGATIONS almost impossible. To such they extend a most lenient hand. If you have a real bona fide "hard luck" story—if you are placed in the embarrassing position of not being able to promptly meet your bills, YOU SHOULD SEE YOUR CREDITORS. Tell them what you can do and when. They'll meet you half way—yes, more—they'll go the limit for you—BECAUSE THEY BELIEVE YOU HONEST.

Only merchants of poor judgment and short-sightedness want a man to go bankrupt. The REAL MERCHANTS—THE SUCCESSFUL MERCHANTS—will always lend the helping hand.

Don't ruin your credit by neglecting notices. If you can't pay—see your merchant.

DRAFTED MAN DIES OF THE INFLUENZA

James McClellan of Island Lake, Taken From Train Here While on His Way to Camp Forrest

MEMBER BELTRAMI COUNTY

Claimed He Was Sick Enroute, Brainerd Physician Diagnosed it as Influenza

James McClellan of Island Lake, member of the drafted contingent of Beltrami county on the way to Camp Forrest, Georgia, who was taken from the train at Brainerd last Friday in a sick condition, died Tuesday of influenza at a Brainerd hospital.

It has been reported that McClellan spoke to the board at Bemidji that he was not feeling well and some man in jest replied that he would warm up when he got further down south. The young man had chills on the train from Bemidji to Brainerd and at this place a physician was secured who said he had the influenza. He and his Beltrami county associates occupied a separate coach and it is not known how many of the men were exposed to the disease.

TO IMMUNIZE AGAINST PNEUMONIA

Dr. R. A. Beise, mayor of Brainerd, has received a quantity of serum for immunizing against pneumonia. The vaccine was furnished free of charge by the department of bacteriology and immunology of the University of Minnesota. It is given free to any physicians applying for same.

Dr. Beise will immunize free of charge any person applying. The individual must be in good health. The dose for adults is one cubic centimeter (15 minims) administered hypodermically. It should be given three times at seven day intervals. The dose for children is 3 minims and up.

The camps are immunizing every one entering the army.

LESLIE KRUEGER TO BE TRIED BY ARMY

Draft Evader Arrested at Brainerd. Taken to St. Paul and Then to LaCrosse, Wis.

CHARGE RESISTING ARREST

"Federal Laws Provide no Punishment Severe Enough in His Case," Said District Attorney

Leslie Krueger, draft evader, arrested at Brainerd by Sheriff Claus A. Theorin and brought to LaCrosse, Wis., on a charge of resisting arrest, with force of arms at his farm home near Owen, Wis., where the four Krueger brothers fought a battle with a posse, will be turned over to the military authorities to be tried for desertion, according to United States District Attorney A. C. Wolfe. The federal laws provide no punishment severe enough in this case, Mr. Wolfe said.

One man was killed and several wounded as a result of the battle.

SUCCESS OF UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

Those in Charge of Drive in Crow Wing County are Assured Victory will be Scored

FEELING IN THE COMMUNITY

"It Will Eliminate Duplication of Labor and Number of Solicitations," said F. H. Simpson

(Communicated)

The success of the United War Work Campaign is assured. Crow Wing county will put the drive over successfully. This is assured by the way in which the unified effort is viewed by representative men.

An interview of a number of men resulted as follows and is indication of the feeling in the community relative to taking every possible comfort to "the boys."

W. H. Cleary—"The combined drive is most certainly the right idea. We should go ahead altogether. Stand solidly behind the boys."

A. T. Fisher, president of Brainerd Business Men's Association—"A mighty good thing. Looks like killing a number of birds with one stone."

F. M. Koop, alderman Fifth ward—"A fine thing. A good idea. It has my heartiest approval."

O. C. Skauge—"A splendid idea to combine all these activities. It simplifies it a whole lot. All should combine on this."

D. E. Whitney—"Must be put across collectively. 'Tis the practical thing to do. It is the patriotic way to handle it and thoroughly democratic, too."

H. F. Michael—"The success of this campaign will do more to demonstrate the unanimity of the American people than any other movement of the war. It shows that all creeds and shades of belief are solidly behind the boys. A most happy idea. It will get results and save much hard work and the boys will get the benefit of all."

E. H. Simpson, of the Citizens State bank—"The only thing to do. It will eliminate duplication of labor and will eliminate the many number of solicitations. The results will be the same in the end."

Dr. J. A. Thabes, president of the Chamber of Commerce—"Only way to proceed. It is fair to all. It is most democratic. Always have favored a combination."

R. B. Whitington, cashier of First National bank—"Think it a good idea. If anyone has any one organization they would wish to particularly favor their subscriptions can be made for that specific organization. This gets rid of separate drives and saves expense. All societies are working to the same end."

Fred L. Britton, Treasurer Trades & Labor Assembly—"An excellent idea. Think it very wise to combine all the war activities under one drive. Should have been done before."

Theo. Newgord, president of Retail Clerks Association—"I thoroughly endorse the combined drive. It will save time and energy and gets better results."

Frank G. Hall, president Typographical Union, alderman Second Ward—"It is the only proper way. All agencies will thus be cared for with the least amount of work."

CAMPAIGN AGAINST FEAR

Course in Common Sense and Christian Science Urged to Check "Flu"

A course in common sense and the basic ideas of Christian Science, and an editorial policy for newspapers directed against fear, was urged at a meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, of business men and professional men, whose committee have virtually been in charge of the city during the so-called Spanish influenza epidemic, says The Christian Science Monitor of October 22. Dr. W. C. Witte, city sanitarian, is chairman of the committee.

The fact that soldiers and officers at Camp Dodge who are Christian Scientists have not been affected, says the Monitor, was called to the committee's attention.

"There is no question," said Dr.

"Lorna Doone" Went Begging.
It will surprise many to whom "Lorna Doone" is a classic to learn that Blackmore's great novel became popular in this country before it was known in England, where it went begging. This fact is disclosed in some reminiscences of the Harper house. It related that it was not until after 1874, when Harper & Bros. published it in New York, that "Lorna Doone" appeared in the land of her birth. Marston, the English publisher of the novel, said that it hung fire for some time with them, until the engagement of the Marquis of Lorne to Princess Louise was announced, and then it began to sell. In some unaccountable way, Marston said, the English public apparently associated the title with the name of the marquis and so began to read the book. Blackmore was better known among his neighbors at Teddington on the Thames as a fruit man than as a novelist. The fact that he was a successful market gardener explains the wonderful knowledge he displayed in "Kit and Kitty" of the plagues and profits of a fruit raising business. The pictures of Corney Orchardson's gardening experiences were evidently drawn from life.

THE MAN IN CLASS A1

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition, not years, puts you in the card. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely. The bodily functions are impaired and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is generally the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A1. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules periodically and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be enlivened, your muscles supple, your mind active, and your body capable of hard work. Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haarem Oil—the kind your great grandfather used. Two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. Remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL Brand. In three sizes, sealed packages.

DON'T DRINK SHIPS!

Are you shocked to see the lady drinking ships? You drink ships every time you use sugar unnecessarily, in a beverage. Seventy-five per cent. of the sugar used in this country has to be brought here in ships. Every possible ship is needed for the transportation of troops and supplies to the other side. Eliminate sugar as a luxury, and you refuse many ships for war purposes. Teach your appetite to remember this—DON'T DRINK SHIPS.

LOUIS HATHAWAY WRITES FROM FRANCE

side of a hill. The houses are all connected, a house, barn, a house, etc. The streets wind around and round. Usually there is a strong hold on the summit of the hill or a church. Every village has a wonderful church. Just above our billet is a big church of St. Cornille. The foundation and crypt dates back to 500 A. D. and was built by the Romans. The altars are of black walnut, hand carved, and the iron fret work about the choir stalls are all hand wrought iron. The walls are hung with magnificent paintings. The old "cure" or priest took us through the church and down into the crypt. I have many souvenirs of these visits. And so it goes. Trips of this kind are mingled in with the daily grind and makes a change in the routine of things.

Perhaps some of you fellows are asking about the French girls. Ha, Ha! Impossible! A fellow who really falls for a French girl must have a weak spot somewhere. Outside of Paris, I haven't seen a girl I'd look twice at. Once in a while you see one you might fancy, but her neck is usually dirty and their feet and shoes—Heaven preserve us! Tell the girls they needn't worry about the boys. Two American girls came out to see me Sunday, they were not particularly good looking "Y" girls or "dressers," but they were American girls, and the way the fellows raved over them, they might have been princesses of the royalty. In fact, they were royal girls of God's country—U. S. A.

10 A. M.—As I sit here writing one of the boys brought in a package from "home" and in it was a box of home-made candy "stick" with red stripes and the hard Christmas kind. What a treasure. Believe me, it was doled out, piece by piece. I drew two and I am saving one for tomorrow. Oh, that some good friend would remember me with a box of candy. My "buddie" buried his box under a loose brick in the floor and pulled his bed over it. Received a picture today from Elsie Janis showing her talking and singing to a bunch of the fellows.

Mail is the big event of the week. Can you all imagine yourselves thousands of miles away from home, living in a strange land, quartered in an old stone chateau full of shell holes that let in the rain as well as the sunshine, with the mud and dirt, the babble of a strange tongue, the passing rumble of trucks, whistling of shells bursting, shrapnel, the whirr of an aeroplane over head, and just as you crawl away to your "cootie" dugout, hear the welcome word that mail has come. Oh, how bitter the disappointment as the bottom of the sack is reached and your name is not called. If you could only see the battered remnants of letters long received and read and reread, until a fresh one comes, you would all pause and gaze and stay away from church, if your war activities permitted at other time, and write. And when you write, tell the news, even if it's only that Sam Jones has painted his boat or something of the kind. "Compre?" as we say over here.

I had my "Jazz" orchestra down to the "Y" Saturday night and the fellows got an awful kick out of a stag dance. There were about 200 couples on the floor at one time, all boys. We enjoyed it, but—well, why wish for one of the Brainerd dancers and our girls. They say "Without hope, the heart would break" and some day let's hope, soon, some of us will be coming back. Nothing then, will be kicked about, for as we all look across the briny deep in memory, the U. S. seems like heaven. We had "gas" this morning and I must wash out my mask. I hope none of you will ever have to wear one of the "blessed" things.

The boys in this company presented me with a scrap book filled with pictures of the company. I wouldn't take a million dollars for it.

One of the "Goffey" guys just came in raising rough house, and we all joined in throwing him out on his ear.

Girls, I wish you could see the stunning first lieutenant of our company. He's a dark, handsome, tall, and wears a uniform like a prince, and a soldier every inch. The men of the company think the world and all of him. I'll have some pictures to show of him when I get back. Maybe he will send you a photo if you write him.

Gee, there is an old French woman sitting out in the street in front of our billet roasting coffee. The French coffee is almost impossible to drink. They buy the green coffee and they have a charcoal stove that revolves around. They pull a seat out in the street, start the stove going and proceed to burn up the coffee. When it gets to a cinder they grind it up and make a thick syrup of it. Gee, it's so strong it stands alone.

The guard today is from our company, so we can rest securely tonight. The rest of the company is now on a charge over the hill. Three fellows are flopping on my bunk and the rain is coming down in torrents.

We had wonderful eats today. The captain, a prince of a man, gave the dinner out of his own pocket to the company. Fried chicken, mashed potatoes, corn, cocoa, bread and jam and doughnuts. It sure was good. Never do I want to see beans or macaroni again, but we are not kicking with a skipper like ours.

This is sure a rambling letter, but accept it and answer it. You can always reach me at 12 Rue d'Aggesea, Paris.

And so dear friends, I will say "Au Revoir" for this time.

LOUIS E. HATHAWAY.

AMERICANS FIND FOE TRAP

Wire Attached to Cane Led to High Explosive.

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 29.—American troops are still finding mines and hidden explosives in Chateau Chery.

The latest trap of this kind was an innocent appearing walking stick, suspended at the entrance of a dugout, as if it had been left by its hurriedly departing owner.

Investigation showed that a fine wire ran from the cane to a point in some rock, where it was connected with a 25-pound charge of high explosive.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

By the Legislature at Its General Session, 1917, to be Submitted to the People of Said State at the General 1918 Election, Together with a Statement of Its Purpose and Effect

PURPOSE AND EFFECT

PREPARED BY
CLIFFORD L. HILTON

Attorney General of Minnesota.

Addressed to
JULIUS A. SCHMAHL

Secretary of State

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL,
ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA.

April 29, 1918.

HON. JULIUS A. SCHMAHL,
Secretary of State.

SIR: As required by Section 46, General Statutes of the State of Minnesota for the year 1913, I have the honor to furnish you herewith a statement of the purpose and effect of the amendment proposed to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota by the Legislature of 1917, and which is to be submitted to the electors of said State at the General Election in 1918.

Chapter 515 of the Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1917, proposes an amendment of Article 13 of the Constitution of said State by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

"Section 6. The manufacture, sale, barter, gift, disposition, or the furnishing, or transportation, or keeping or having in possession for sale, barter, gift, disposition, or the furnishing, or transportation of intoxicating liquor of any kind, in any quantity whatever, except for sacramental, medicinal, scientific, or medicinal purposes, shall be forever prohibited within this state from and after the first day of July, 1920, and this amendment shall be self-executing. The legislature shall enact laws for the enforcement of this section and shall provide suitable penalties for the violation thereof."

THE PURPOSE of the proposed amendment is to forever prohibit within the State of Minnesota after July 1, 1920, the manufacture, sale, barter, gift, disposition or the furnishing or transportation, or the keeping or having in possession for any of such purposes, of intoxicating liquor of any kind in any quantity whatever, except for sacramental, medicinal, scientific or medicinal purposes.

THE EFFECT of the proposed amendment, if adopted, will be to make unlawful and forever prohibit the manufacture, sale, barter, gift, disposition or the furnishing or transportation or the keeping or having in possession for any of such purposes, of intoxicating liquor of any kind in any quantity whatever, except for sacramental, medicinal, scientific or medicinal purposes, within this state after July 1, 1920, and to place it beyond the power of any legislative authority to permit the doing of any such acts. If adopted, the doing of any of the prohibited acts automatically becomes unlawful after July 1, 1920, without any action on the part of the legislature or other legislative body. The amendment is made self-executing. A duty is, however, imposed upon the legislature to enact laws for the enforcement of this section, if adopted, and to provide penalties for the violation thereof.

Yours respectfully,
CLIFFORD L. HILTON,
Attorney General.
